Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 4, 6, 8-10 allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art either alone or in combination doesn't teach the limitations of (a) computing the middle of said graphical object; (b) extracting a first vertical sample of n pixel wide, which passes through said middle; (c) determining the next adjacent sample located on the right and comparing it to said first vertical sample; (d) repeating (c) until the next adjacent sample located on the right is different than the first vertical sample, and setting the boundary of the right corners of the variant portions of the object, (e) determining the next adjacent sample located on the left and comparing it to the first vertical sample; (f) repeating step (e) as long as the next adjacent sample is different to the first vertical sample, and setting the left boundary of the left corners of the variant portions of the objects; (g) extracting a second horizontal sample of n pixel wide which passes through said middle of the object; (h) determining the next adjacent sample located upward and comparing it to said second horizontal sample; (i) repeating (h) until the next adjacent sample located upward is different than said second horizontal sample, and setting the boundary of the superior left and right corners of the variant portions of the object, (j) determining the next adjacent sample located downward and comparing it to said second horizontal sample; (k) repeating step (j) as long as the next adjacent sample is different to said second horizontal sample, and setting the boundary of the inferior left and right corners of the objects in combination with the other claimed features.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
